Expanding the Alliance's National Office Property

On pages 2 and 3 of the March BULLETIN it was announced that our Alliance Chairman and Mrs. Lana Williams had just purchased a "fixer-upper" farmhouse with outbuildings on 1.69 acres. It will be used to house National Office staff and has plenty of room for a big community garden, orchard, chickens, goats, more outbuildings, and a natural pond site. More importantly, perhaps, is that it shares a long boundary with the 50-acre Alliance property in back — and 220 feet of frontage on the hardtop highway in the front which can be used for an elegant entrance, an improvement over the current 25-foot right of way into the property.

Our staff and visiting members have put in many hours this spring bush hogging, cutting many trees, and burning the refuse in a 10-foot deep, 30x40-foot wide pit we had dug by a large trackhoe. There was much old furniture and junk from the house that was burned, and five trailer loads of scrap metal that we were able to sell as salvage. By the end of May the old house had been brought back to life, with a water meter activated and temporary electricity approved. All the while, work continued on the two-story William Pierce Memorial Library book warehouse, which is now "dried in" with interior walls being planned. Tractor, truck, and truck trailer repairs and maintenance slowed us a bit, but the vehicles are in good shape now as we enter the month of June, when we expect more volunteer Alliance workers to visit and help with our work.

Cosmotheist Books

Despite efforts by Jews, and their anti-White collaborators at Amazon and elsewhere, to ban National Alliance material, block our Web sites, and deny us the use of credit cards and other online financial services, we persevere. Five titles have been added this month to our online bookstore. Our featured title is Dr. Thomas Dalton's new two-volume hardback edition of Mein Kampf with new artwork on the covers. Its price is $100, and it is well worth it. From Douglas Mercer's outstanding article "German Death Wish" on National Vanguard, where he begins by quoting a news item:

> "After the death of Hitler, the copyright for Mein Kampf passed to the government of Bavaria, which refused to allow it to be republished. The copyright ran out on December 31, 2015.
> "On 3 February 2010, the Institute of Contemporary History (IfZ) in Munich announced plans to republish an annotated version of the text, for educational purposes in schools and universities, in 2015. The book had last been published in Germany in 1945. The IfZ argued that a republication was necessary to get an authoritative annotated edition by the time the copyright ran out, which might open the way for neo-Nazi groups to publish their own versions.
> "The annotated edition of Mein Kampf was published in Germany in January 2016 The two-volume edition included about 35,000 notes, and was almost 2,000 pages long."
> That is, for the longest time no version of Mein Kampf was legally available in Germany and then when they realized that one would be, they produced two door-stop books with footnotes and scholarly apparatus that dwarfed the original text in size.

Dr. Dalton's translation is no door-stop. A leading expert on Mr. Hitler's magnum opus, Martin Kerr, reviewed it, saying "This translation of Mein Kampf is a major scholarly accomplishment, long overdue, and Dr. Dalton is to be commended for it."

Other new titles added this month to the Alliance's online bookstore at cosmotheistchurch.org include three more in author C.S. Forester's Hornblower series of adventure stories: Mr. Midshipman Hornblower, Lieutenant Hornblower, and Admiral Hornblower in the West Indies, bringing to ten the number offered by us out of that 11-book series. The Perfect Wagnerite: A Commentary on the Niblung's Ring is an unabridged replica of George Bernard Shaw's 1923 edition, commenting on Richard Wagner's chief work, The Ring series, in four parts: "The Valkyrie," "Siegfried," "Night Falls on the Gods," and "The Rhine Gold." The Wanderings of Peoples by A.C. Haddon, professor of Ethnology at Cambridge, published in 1912 by Cambridge University Press, is a very detailed look at the wanderings and migrations of peoples known at that time.

Correspondence

Dear National Alliance: I am R. Wolff and before I begin I would like to say thank you for allowing me to be a part of this community and be able to openly discuss the problems that our race has faced in the past and the current issues that we must combat daily. I must say that reading quite a few of the posts here, and seeing the discussions that have taken place between members, is a breath of fresh air in the world that I interact with daily. After years of personally researching and studying the deteriorating conditions in the world that we live in, I knew that I needed to take a stand against the crimes being committed against our people.

Originally I was dissuaded from seeking out other groups due to the rise and fall of right wing groups and the various legal penalties placed on the members of those groups by the malicious elements within America. Because of this I attempted to convince and educate those around me in the armed forces that our race was in jeopardy and that we had been lied to all of our lives. These attempts were met with constant failure and I was branded an extremist/fascist/neo-Nazi/Nazi sympathizer/Nazi apologist by all of those around me, but this did little to discourage me from my beliefs that had been backed by all of the research and supporting evidence I had collected. Then as time went on and I made rank, I was censored by those above me and told to watch what I say or there would be consequences. I did face some consequences, to include being marked down on my annual performance report.

Regardless, I still held strong to my beliefs and fought to at least educate those around me — because even if they would not listen at first, repetition is the greatest method for dealing with the common members of our race. However, as I write this post today, the number of mixed-race and/or Negro service members continues to grow as Whites leave the service. I do not blame them, as the military has become an inhospitable place for White men as policy after policy is introduced to ensure that the other races are placed above Whites. The brainwashing intensifies daily. An excellent example of this is that last year the military conducted mandatory training to brief the members of the armed forces on what it defined as "extremism" and what to do if a member catches another member expressing beliefs that fall within this category. Later this year the military will launch another phase of brainwashing to teach White servicemen to embrace multiculturalism and to feel guilty for being White. Additionally, a majority of the essential positions within the military have been filled with members of alien races that do not perform as they should and instead cause the military to grind to halt when essential functions are tested in exercises.

The other White members within my unit are greatly lacking in racial consciousness and this is displayed daily to me, especially when I am sent on military assignments with them. They talk of the latest rap music and how they would like to procreate with members of other races. This is not exclusive to the newest generation joining the military; many of the older Whites act the same way and talk of wanting to throw away their ancestry. They do not care where they came from, but instead only view themselves as "Americans." It is obvious that many of them do not know any better, and have been taught by the media bosses and the Marxist education system that it is bad to be White, and that anything other than White is preferable to having more White children in the world. Then when a new member arrives who is White, he often acts as if he is a Negro, and fails to contribute to the mission. The worst, however, is when a new member arrives and he is non-White. He is taught that anything which offends him should be immediately reported to the Equal Opportunity office so that the offending member can be strictly dealt with. My opinion now is that there is little reason for racially conscious Whites to remain in the military, an organization that is intent on placing Whites on the bottom.... — R.W., Kansas

Chairman Williams responds: R.W., for reasons of space I cut the rest of your comment about your experience, seeking a university degree in history which, according to you, isn't much better than your shocking military experience. You are young and racially conscious, and what's important is that since you wrote the words above earlier this month on our White Biocentrism forum, I have received your application for membership in the National Alliance. Try to suck it up and stay below the current corrupted military's PC radar to fulfill your military obligation. Soon enough you'll be able to put your disastrous service behind you. In the meantime you can study the history you want — our history, not theirs — probably self-taught, judging from the history you say they are teaching at your college. Your future will likely not be in the halls of academia, but you can put what you learn to use in the service of your race.

Dear National Alliance, I am a White man interested in joining and becoming a productive member of an effective pro-White organization. For too long have I wasted my valuable time and resources fooling around with insincere people and inferior organizations replete with cowards and big talkers, contaminated with Abrahamic religions and phony conservative indoctrination. I've been an admirer of Adolf Hitler, Revilo Oliver, William Pierce, and George Lincoln Rockwell for many years. It's time I seriously applied myself to the cause of our Folk. Thank you for considering me for membership in the National Alliance. I look forward to your response. — T.K., via email

Chairman Williams: I want to report that as a new member of the National Alliance I will have 1,000 leaflets printed and distributed in my area on and around the 55th anniversary of that act

DAY OF INFAMY

by Dr. William L. Pierce and the editors of National Vanguard

JUNE 8, 1967, is a day which will live in infamy. On this day an American Navy vessel, the U.S.S. Liberty, was deliberately attacked in international waters by the armed forces of Israel in a treacherous attempt to sink the ship and kill everyone aboard it. The Liberty was an electronic intelligence gathering vessel, and it had been sent to the eastern Mediterranean to monitor radio communications. Israel had launched its latest land-grabbing war against its neighbors just four days earlier, and the U.S. government was curious as to what its Jewish "ally" was up to.

The Jews, on the other hand, were quite determined that the United States not learn what they were doing. The Jewish plan was to grab as much Arab land as possible before the United States could figure out what was going on and begin insisting that Israel a "professional Jew-hater," and lots of things that are too crude for me to write. Among these collaborators of the Jews attacking Ennes are individuals claiming to be veterans and patriots, but it is clear where their allegiance really lies.

Ennes always has declined to respond in kind to these attacks and has been unfailingly polite. We might fault him for failing to draw some general conclusions about the Jews and for continuing to maintain that he is not anti-Jewish, but let us instead credit him for standing up for the truth in his own way against the almost unbelievably intense barrage of hatred that has been directed against him.

What should be shocking and disgusting to every American, what should outrage us all, is not the lies of the Jews or their attacks on Lieutenant Ennes — we expect that sort of behavior from the Jews — but rather we should be outraged by the collaboration of the U.S. government with the Jews. During the attack on the Liberty, when it was calling for help and was in danger of being sunk, President Lyndon Johnson recalled the U.S. aircraft that were rushing to assist its crew. He was more concerned about not offending the Jews in the United States than he was about his responsibility as commander-in-chief of America's armed forces.

And Johnson's recall of these American jets cannot be explained away as a mix-up or a misunderstanding in the heat of the moment. This action of Johnson's was deliberate. It was consistent with his behavior in every instance involving the Liberty. Johnson even checked with the Israeli ambassador a year after the attack to see if the government of Israel had any objection to Captain McGonagle's receiving the Congressional Medal of Honor, and then he refused to present the medal himself. That sort of behavior goes beyond outrageous, even for a politician. It is nothing but the basest treason.

We had a piece of filth in the White House 50 years ago who put foreign interests over the interests of our people. And every [illegible] of either party [illegible] same inter-meant the end of Israel's existence right then and there. Why did the Jews do it? Are they stupid?

I think not. They did it because they knew they could get away with it. They did it because it might have worked, and they had nothing to lose if it didn't work. They knew they could get away with it. And they knew they could get away with it because they control our news and entertainment media.

And so here we are, half a century into this shameful episode, half a century after the treacherous and arrogant attack by Israel on the U.S.S. Liberty which killed 34 Americans and wounded 171 of them — an attack which was intended to kill everyone aboard our ship. And for all those years the media have maintained their blanket of silence, and the politicians have maintained their sickening pretense about our "gallant, little Jewish ally" in the Middle East. This is the Jewish ally which continues to moan to the world about how it is "persecuted" by everyone else and continues to make demands on the world for money which it claims the world owes it.

Our politicians make pious speeches about China's abuse of human rights — and I have no doubt that the charges against China are true — but then these same politicians vote for more of our money to be given to Israel, a country which murders prisoners of war wholesale and which routinely tortures Palestinians suspected of wanting freedom for their people. These are the same politicians who vote for laws requiring that our children be brainwashed with Jewish propaganda about the so-called "Holocaust" in their schools and who express their abhorrence of "anti-Semitism" whenever any American, such as Lieutenant Ennes, tells the nasty truth about our "gallant, little Jewish ally."

Surely, the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah were paragons of virtue and rectitude compared to the current inhabitants of Congress, the White House, and the Federal courts. And surely, what happened to the citizens of Sodom and Gomorrah will happen to them.

But until that cleansing fire comes, let us raise our voices. Let [illegible] and ever m[illegible] the Let us remind of war against the United States by the terrorist state of Israel. That is the least I can do to raise consciousness among my neighbors about the Jews' murderous attack on the U,S.S. Liberty, and to introduce them to our Alliance. Racial regards, — P.C., Oklahoma

Chairman Williams responds: Thank you, P.C. Yes, it is that time of year again, 7 June, and time for our activists to have our "Day of Infamy" flier printed and distributed; go to natall.com/fliers and download it free.

Fellow National Alliance members: I've been involved with the White nationalist movement for quite some time. In doing some deep soul-searching, I felt that my contributions to my White race simply did not measure up to my high personal standards. Therefore, after spending quite a bit of time reading about and researching the National Alliance, I felt compelled to join. I knew that in order to work pro-actively for the preservation, support, advancement, and future of my race it is my responsibility and a moral imperative to involve myself to the greatest degree possible, which can only be achieved by membership in this outstanding pro-White organization, the National Alliance, and by active participation in its collateral discussion board, White Biocentrism. — N.G., North Carolina

It is good to be here to support this worthy group of people. I'm new so I have much to learn. Thank you, Chairman Williams for having me here... I'm in my 30s and my background is Scottish, Irish, Sardinian, and German. I'm a third generation American and most of my family are very (dare I say) liberal. I grew up in California and had a pretty normal childhood. In my teenage years I became pretty strong-minded, aware of race but not involved with any groups. I had strong views about race but didn't know how or where to channel them — the reason being that the members of our race aren't taught to have an identity, and if we do it's "bad" or "selfish" or "inappropriate." I still had my views and beliefs but put them on the back burner and just let life take its course. I went to college for two years. I have a love for Nature and the outdoors. I also have a deep sense of justice and longing for a system that is set straight, because we all know that this one is jacked up beyond repair.

How did I find this forum? My boyfriend told me about the NA and I've read nearly everything on the Web site already. I listen to the natall.com radio station at work on my earbuds nearly every day. I find most of the discussions are things I've long believed in, but the only difference now is I have the facts. My favorite episodes are of Dr. Pierce himself. My hope is to gain enough knowledge to help like-minded kin become more racially aware and support our efforts... We must help worthy ones to see what's really going on. It is a goal of mine to join the National Alliance, but everything takes time. Thank you for the warm welcomes and I appreciate the information sent my way. — F.F., California (via our whitebiocentrism.com forum)

Will Williams

If Whites insist on participating in "social media," do so on ours, not (((theirs))). Like us on WhiteBiocentrism.com; follow us on NationalVanguard.org. ϒ

Chairman Williams responds: There are literally millions of good White people out there who have good racial instincts, but until someone guides them to our sites, those blunted instincts remain dormant, or on their "back burners." It is our job to find the "worthy ones" that F.F. describes and "help them see what's really going on." I expect to see both F.F. and her boyfriend eventually join our Alliance.

It is also our job to help bring each new, fully awakened racial loyalist like F.F. further along. A good place for members to do this is on our White Biocentrism (WB) forum, which we control. WB's administrator and all WB moderators are trusted Alliance members. The signature file at the bottom of each post I make on our forum is shown above.

These words of the Havamal, variously translated, have inspired men of our race to great deeds again and again; see the personal story of J.S. on the following pages.

Commentary by Chairman William White Williams

Sacrifice

Let me refer again to the March BULLETIN — to the letter in the Correspondence section by J.S. from Illinois, who had joined ur Alliance that month. He wrote then: "The Creator has guided and prodded me in dedicating the remainder of my life to the National Alliance to ensure the survival of our race. For the first time since the 90s, my life has true meaning and purpose. I could not ask for anything more during the few remaining decades of life than serving the self-evident purpose of the Cosmos."

J.S. visited our National Office in April, went back home to Illinois after a few days, excited about what he'd seen that we are building here. He got his affairs in order in record time. He is the "real deal."

Now that he has relocated to Upper East Tennessee, I asked him to write something more about himself and his life-purpose for our members in this issue of the Alliance's BULLETIN. Here, printed below, is his essay.

My Decision
by J.S.

Thank you, Chairman Will. It was three weeks ago when I sacrificed everything dear to me to devote my life to our National Alliance. My house was put up for sale; my wife and I divorced amicably; I resigned a senior position in a highly-respected firm, giving up long-earned benefits; sold most of my personal property, and gave up dearly beloved pets which left me utterly brokenhearted. My aging parents, once a 90-minute drive away, will now take over eleven hours to visit. Though I've experienced significant loss over the past several weeks, I have no regrets, none whatsoever, having traded a life of comfort, ease, and security for a life with meaning. Ensuring the survival of the White race is what matters. Everything else is superficial.

In August of 1990, after honorably completing my service in the US Army, I first read The Turner Diaries by Dr. William Pierce, a book recommended by a fellow soldier who had been stationed with me. I wrote to the address in the book, received information from the National Alliance and became a dues-paying member. For years my friends and I sat around every week, attentively listening to Dr. Pierce's voice on a short-wave radio, and sharing our thoughts about the various books we'd purchased from the Alliance book catalog. Then came the loss of Dr. Peirce. The National Alliance leadership changed, took on a "big-tent" approach, and abandoned Pierce's vision. I soon drifted away.

Earlier this year I decided it was time for a change. I could no longer bear the look, the stink, nor the sounds of the city. Decades of comfort and security failed to fill the void in my soul, so I began to explore the Internet to see if any suitable racially conscious White organizations existed. I was pleasantly surprised to discover the re-formation of the National Alliance under the original principles and vision of Dr. Pierce. Honestly, it sounded too good to be true and I was skeptical. After reading Pocahantas Show Trial and conversing with Chairman Williams over the phone, I felt assured that the National Alliance was again dedicated to the vision of Dr. Pierce. Chairman Will made it clear that he would never compromise the mission of the National Alliance as founded by Dr. Pierce nor the values of Cosmotheism. A few weeks later I undertook the ten-hour drive to visit the National Alliance headquarters, explored property for sale nearby, and the very next day determined that I would give up everything of current value to be of service to the National Alliance. It was not a difficult decision. In fact, how could I do any less? Dr. Pierce, a bona fide rocket scientist, physicist, and professor, had also sacrificed the "American Dream," choosing to sleep on an uncomfortable cot in his office while founding the National Alliance.

William Luther Pierce, the founder of the National Alliance, had a vision of the Universe, and of the future of Life itself, that far exceeded that of other men. He gave the Alliance a philosophical and spiritual foundation that sets it distinctly apart from other groups.

I'm not seeking accolades nor a pat on the back. My greatest reward is knowing that I'm living in service to our National Alliance and ensuring the survival of our race. When I pass from this world, those seeing my tombstone will read those famous words from the Havamal, often quoted by Dr. Pierce.

* * *

It will be dedicated members like J.S. and others relocating to our Cosmotheist Community that will ensure our Alliance lives on after we old soldiers are no longer around. W. W. W.
